PRODUCT
EXAMPLES

Chew, Snuff, Dip, or Snus

Definition: Tobacco products that do not produce smoke or vapor, often referred to as smokeless tobacco.

E-Cigarettes

Definition: Battery-powered cigarettes that produce vapor instead of smoke. They can be refillable or disposable. This category does not include e-hookahs or e-cigars.

Outside Advertisements

Definition: Include any sign, poster, banner, decal, sticker, neon light, or other three-dimensional object that promotes a brand. Advertisements are pre-printed or professionally produced but may include handwritten information about price. These may be located on the building, on functional items (e.g., trash can, shopping basket), or property (e.g., on the sidewalk, window, parking lot, front door, gas pump, side of the building).

Store Categories

Convenience store with or without gas: Convenience stores, also known as food marts, sell a limited line of goods that generally include milk, bread, soda, and snacks. Some convenience stores sell gas (e.g., Arco AM/PM, Chevron FoodMart, BP Connect, Valero), and others don't.

Drug store or pharmacy: These are known primarily for selling prescription drugs as well as over-the-counter medicines (e.g., Rite Aid, Walgreens, Duane Reade).

Beer, wine or liquor store: Beer, wine, or liquor stores mostly sell alcoholic beverages and may sell a limited supply of snack foods.

Grocery store: This includes a small market, deli, produce market, large grocery, and supermarket (e.g., Safeway, Kroger, Giant Food, Piggly Wiggly, Vons, Luckys, Ralph's). Some supermarkets have gas pumps. The difference between a convenience store and a grocery store is that grocery stores sell raw meat that is meant to be cooked at home.

Mass merchandiser: Mass merchandisers sell a variety of goods, including clothes, electronics, and food (e.g., WalMart, Costco, BJ's, Sam's Club). This category also includes discount stores that sell a wide range of general merchandise, including fresh and perishable goods (e.g., 99 Cent Stores, Dollar General).

Pharmacy Counter

Note: Stores do not have to be a drug store/pharmacy to have a pharmacy counter. For example, a WalMart might be a mass merchandiser and have a pharmacy counter.

Availability/Acceptance

Availability of Alcoholic Beverages

Definition: Include any beverage designed for consumption that contains at least 0.5% alcohol by volume (e.g., wine, beer, distilled spirits, alcopops). This category does not include products that contain alcohol but are not meant for consumption as a beverage (e.g., cooking wine, vanilla).

Availability and Visibility of Tobacco Products

Note: Always ask about the availability of tobacco products if they are not visibly displayed in a store. When a sign on a shelf or presence of an advertisement shows that a store usually sells the product, then indicate that the product is "sold here." Indicate a product is available even if it looks to be temporarily "out of stock."

Acceptance of WIC & SNAP (i.e., food stamps, EBT)

TOBACCO PLACEMENT

Tobacco products within 12" of youth products

Tobacco products within 12 inches (approximately two hand lengths) of youth products includes proximity to items such as toys, candy, gum, slushy/soda machines, or ice cream.

Tobacco advertisements within 3 feet of floor

Note: Do not consider advertisements behind the counter.

Self-service display

Definition: A consumer can obtain the tobacco product without clerk assistance.

Price Promotions

Definition: Popular price promotions include cents or dollar-off promotions, multi-pack discounts, and buy some-get some free deals.

Multi-pack discount

An offer to purchase more than one item that results in a lower price (e.g., “buy 2, get 1 free” or “$4.59 per pack when you buy 2”).

Special price

A sale or special price indicated by terms such as “special value,” “discount,” “cents-off,” “on sale,” “reduced price,” “limited time offer,” or “trial offer.” Ignore cigarette cartons and do not include “everyday low price” or “value brand.”

Not a promotion

Just a sign with a price, regardless of how many you get for the price (e.g., 2 cigarillos for 99 cents). This is not a promotion because it is just displaying the everyday price of the item and doesn’t have the words associated with a special price (e.g., “reduced price”).

Talking to the cashier

Please consider the context, remembering that the cashier's time is a limited resource. Use your judgment and remember to be courteous and to avoid getting in the way of other customers.

Obtaining Price

Try to ask the cashier for the cheapest pack price and request the price for the Newport and blu products. Look for the lowest advertised price if cashier is not available or unwilling to answer questions.

Newport menthol

Definition: Price of one Newport menthol regular hard pack (green pack). Record the advertised price (if on sale, this would be the discounted price) that is clearly visible. Do not substitute the price for any other variety of Newport, such as a different cigarette length or flavor (e.g., Newport 100's or red pack). Do not compute this price from a multi-pack discount or from a carton price.

Blu disposable e-cigarette

Definition: Price of one blu disposable e-cigarette (menthol). Record the advertised price (if on sale, this would be the discounted price) that is clearly visible. Do not substitute the price for any other blu product (e.g., starter kit, cartridge) or any other brand of e-cigarette.
